

UN Results – Are we achieving them? How do we know?

High-level Panel of Evaluation Week

*Tuesday, 16 April, 2013 from 3 to 6 pm
Dag Hammarskjöld Library Auditorium*

The high-level panel will discuss whether or not the United Nations is achieving its objectives, how evaluation is contributing to the measuring of the results, if evaluation findings and recommendations are actually used for programme and policy improvements, and how the collective capacity of UN programmes can be built to improve its evaluation ability.

Chair Deborah Rugg, UNEG Chair & Director of the Inspection and Evaluation Division,
Office of Internal Oversight Services

- 3 pm*      Opening remarks
Ban Ki-moon, Secretary-General of the United Nations
- 3.20 pm*      “A UN Programme’s experience in carrying out M&E to fight a global epidemic”
Michel Sidibé, Executive Director, UNAIDS
- 3.40 pm*      “Using evaluation from a country’s perspective”
Pius Bigirimana, Permanent Secretary, Office of the Prime Minister of Uganda
- 4.00 pm*      “Evaluation as instrumental in determining national and donor programme policies and effectiveness”
Nick York, Director for Country, Corporate and Global Evaluations, World Bank
- 4.20pm*      “The status and issues of evaluation capacity across the UN Secretariat” by Carman Lapointe, Under-Secretary-General, Office of Internal Oversight Services
- 4.40 pm*      Questions & Answers
- 5.45 pm*      End

The High-level Panel will be followed by the Chair’s reception launching the Annual General Meeting of the United Nations Evaluation Group.

Venue: United Nations Cafeteria

6 to 8 pm