How the Court is organized

The Assembly of States Parties

Representatives of States Parties meet and provide management oversight for the Court, including electing judges and the Prosecutor and approving the ICC's budget

Four organs of the ICC

Presidency

Conducts external relations with States, coordinates judicial matters such as assigning judges, situations and cases to divisions, and oversees the Registry's administrative work

Judicial Divisions

18 judges in 3 divisions – Pre-Trial, Trial and Appeals – conduct judicial proceedings

OTP

Conducts preliminary examinations, investigations, and prosecutions

Registry

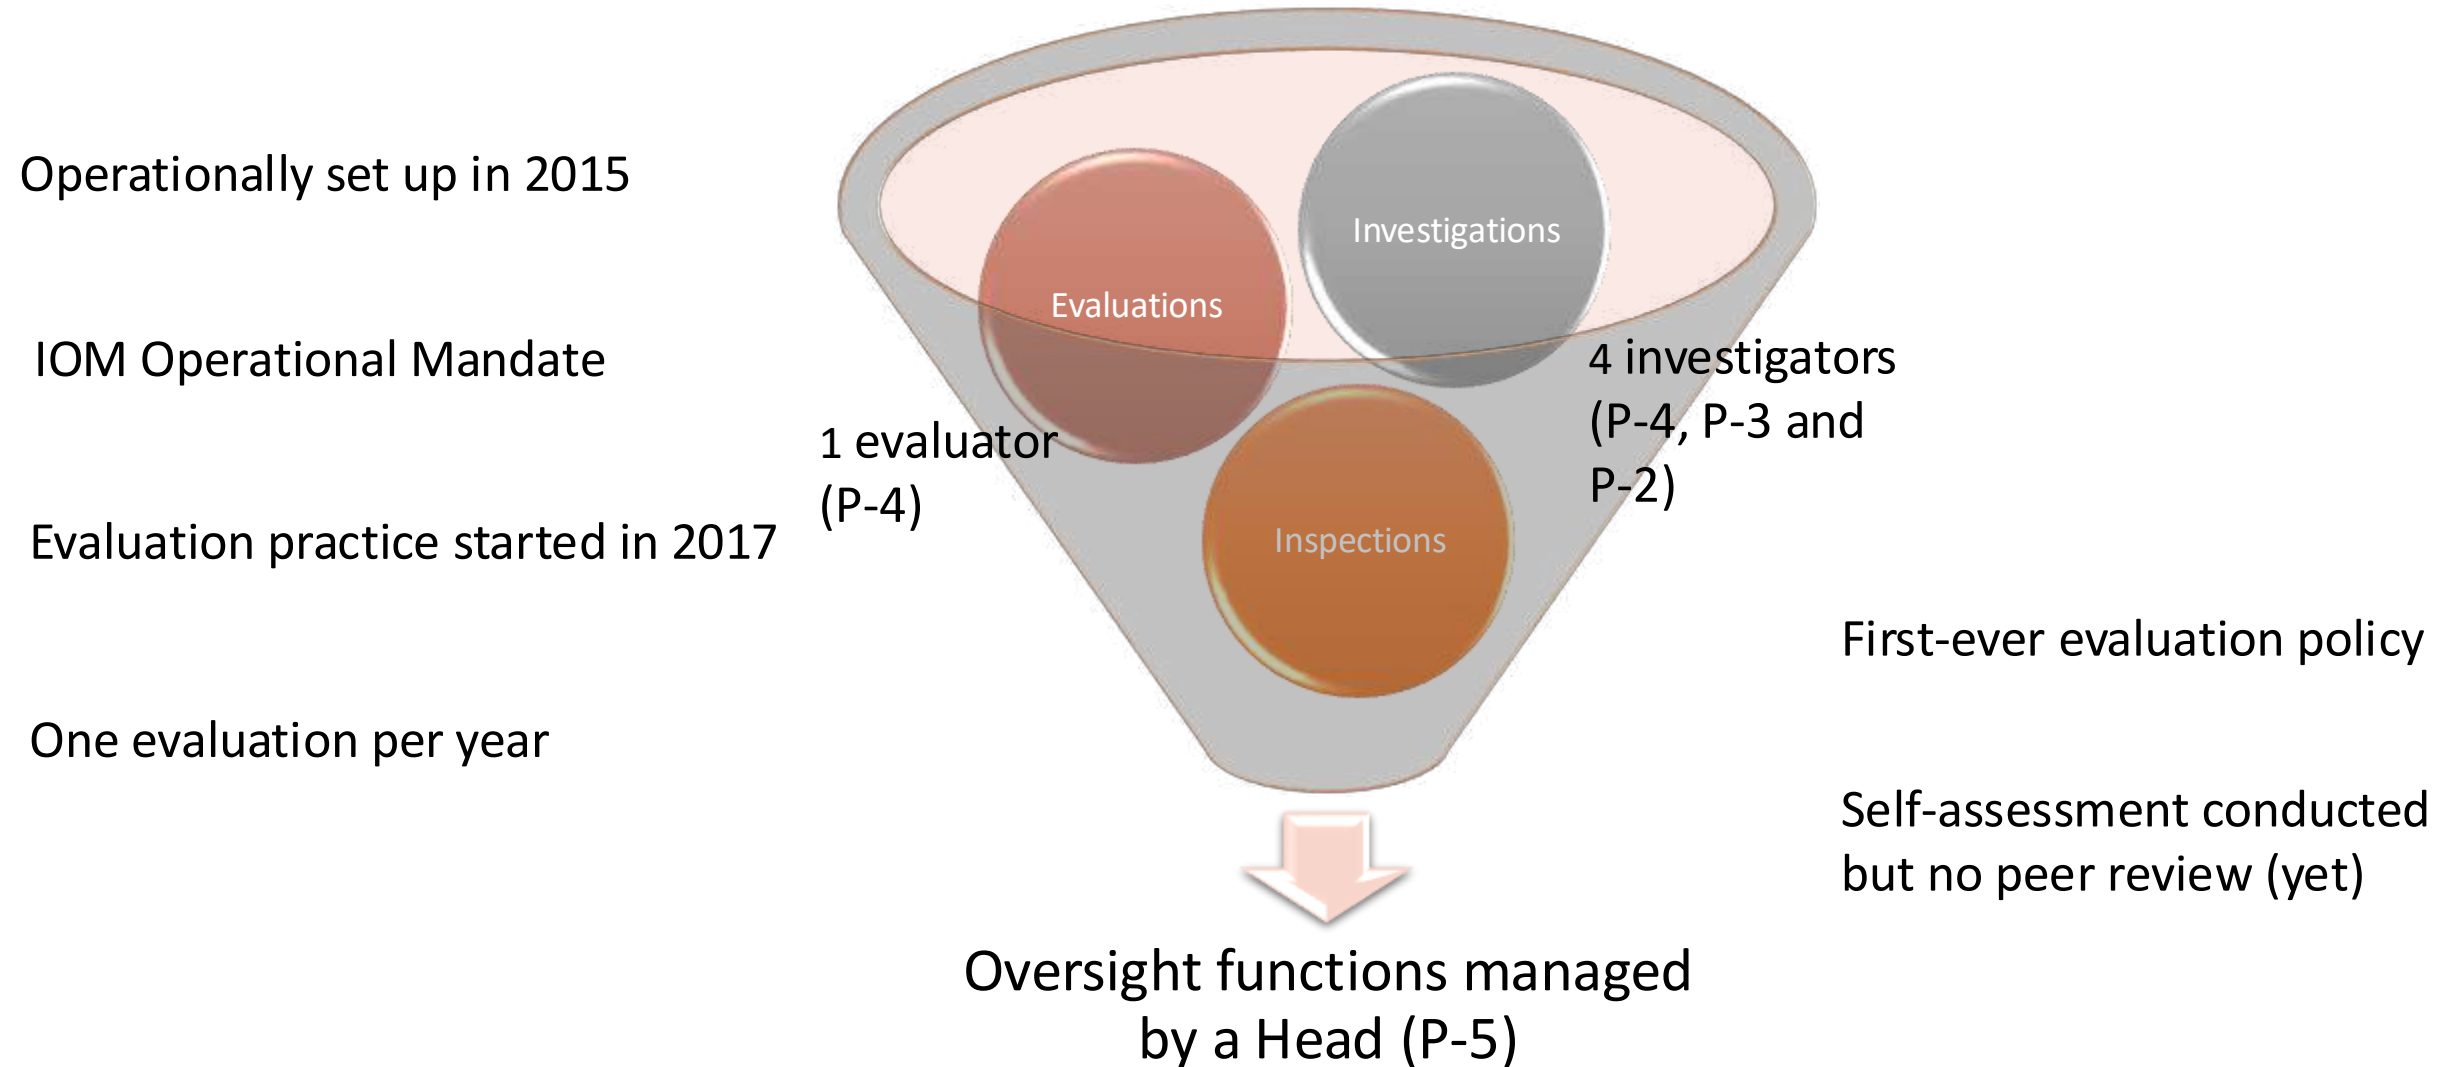

Conducts non-judicial activities, such as security, interpretation, outreach, support to Defence and victims' lawyers, and more

Trust Fund for Victims

Provides assistance, support and reparations to victims

Support from and to UNEG

Looking forward

- More concrete ways that UNEG can support smaller evaluation functions (SEFs):
- Specific engagement with Heads of co-located / oversight offices: How can evaluation functions thrive?
- More peer reviews (other modalities) of SEFs
